1. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to formally document the Group and its Associates’ commitment to establishing and maintaining a Complaints Policy and procedures for the effective internal resolution of complaints. Clients will therefore be enabled to address their complaints in a formal and constructive manner.

This document has been prepared in accordance with the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act and the subordinate legislation thereto and the ASISA Standard on complaint resolution.

2. COMPLAINTS POLICY

2.1 What is a Complaint?

2.2.1 In terms of the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act (FAIS Act), a complaint is defined as follows:

"Complaint" means, subject to section 26(1)(a)(iii), a specific complaint relating to a financial service rendered by a financial services provider or representative to the complainant on or after the date of commencement of this Act, and in which complaint it is alleged that the provider or representative –*

(a) has contravened or failed to comply with a provision of this Act and that as a result thereof the complainant has suffered or is likely to suffer financial prejudice or damage;

(b) has willfully or negligently rendered a financial service to the complainant which has caused prejudice or damage to the complainant or which is likely to result in such prejudice or damage; or

(c) has treated the complainant unfairly

2.2.2 It is important to note that in terms of the Act, the client need not have already suffered a financial loss or incurred damages before a complaint may arise but need simply be a possible consequence of the financial service rendered by the Group or its Associates. Complaints will not be limited to only FAIS related complaints but will include all complaints of any nature received by the Group or its Associates.

2.2 Our Commitment

- 2.2.1 The Group and its Associates are fully committed to addressing and resolving any complaints received from clients in a timely and fair manner and in strict accordance with the provisions of the FAIS Act and any other South African law as may be applicable.
- 2.2.2 The Group and its Associates are fully committed to applying the basic values of transparency and visibility and will ensure at all times that clients have full knowledge of the procedures for the resolution of their complaints.
- 2.2.3 The Group and its Associates are fully committed to the value of fairness and will ensure that a resolution of a complaint received from a client can, during and by means of the resolution process, be effected which is timeous and fair to both clients and to the Group, its Associates and its staff.
- 2.2.4 The Group and its Associates will ensure that adequate manpower and other resources will be available at all times for the timeous, effective and fair resolution of all complaints received from clients.
- 2.2.5 The Group and its Associates will ensure the adequate training of all relevant staff, including imparting and ensuring full knowledge of the provisions of the FAIS Act, the FAIS Rules and the General Code of Conduct for Authorized Financial Services Providers and Representatives with regard to the resolution of complaints.
- 2.2.6 The Group and its Associates are fully committed to ensuring that responsibilities and mandates are delegated to facilitate complaints resolution of a routine nature; that there is provision for the escalation of non-routine serious complaints and the handling thereof by staff with adequate expertise; and to ensuring the avoidance of occurrences giving rise to complaints as well as to improve services and complaint systems and procedures where necessary.
- 2.2.7 The Group and its Associates will ensure the existence of easy access to its complaints resolution policies and procedures at any office or branch.
- 2.2.8 The Group and its Associates will ensure that appropriate management controls are available to exercise effective control and supervision of the internal complaint consideration and resolution process.
- 2.2.9 The Group and its Associates will maintain appropriate records of all complaints for a period of five years.

3. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

3.1 Lodging a complaint

- 3.1.1 All complaints should be made in writing and presented to the Compliance Department at the offices Group. A copy of this Internal Complaints Resolution Policy and Procedure Document will be sent to the client on receipt of the initial complaint.
- 3.1.2 Clients are requested to ensure that the full details relating to the complaint are disclosed and that any supporting documentation be submitted alongside the initial complaint.

3.2 Allocation to Responsible Person

- 3.2.1 Upon receipt of a written complaint the relevant representative and Key Individual will be identified according to the business unit against which the complaint is lodged.

- 3.2.2 Upon receiving the complaint, the Compliance Department will, within two business days, acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing to the client. The client will also be provided with the contact details of the person who will be responsible for resolving the complaint.
- 3.2.3 Attempts will be made to resolve the dispute in a fair and effective manner, giving proper consideration to the complaint, within 7 days of receiving the complaint.

3.3 Escalation of complaint to Secondary Key Individual

- 3.3.1 In the event that the Compliance Department has failed or is unable to resolve the complaint within 7 days, the matter will be escalated to a representative within the business unit against which the complaint has been lodged.
- 3.3.2 This individual will have a further 7 days (14 days from lodgment of the complaint) from receiving the notification to resolve the complaint in a fair and appropriate manner; giving proper consideration to the complaint.

3.4 Escalation to Group Compliance Officer

- 3.4.1 In the event that the matter remains unresolved it will automatically be escalated to the Group Compliance Officer.
- 3.4.2 The Group Compliance Officer will, with the assistance of persons with the necessary authority and expertise, resolve the complaint within 7 days of receiving notification (21 days from lodgment of the complaint).

3.5 Finalisation of Complaint Resolution

- 3.5.1 Complaints may be recorded as being complete once an acceptable resolution has been agreed and actioned with the client.
- 3.5.2 Despite this, complaint files will not be closed until the Group Compliance Officer has reviewed and agreed with the outcome.
- 3.5.3 The Group Compliance Officer may decide to reopen cases where the resolution is not considered to be appropriate. This will be done in consultation with senior management of the business unit concerned.

3.6 Notification of Client of Complaint Resolution Outcome

- 3.6.1 Upon resolution of a complaint, the client must be advised in writing of the outcome as soon as reasonably possible. In the event that the outcome is favourable to the client, appropriate redress, as determined by the responsible person, must be instituted without delay.
- 3.6.2 In the event that the outcome is not favourable to the client, full reasons for the outcome must be furnished to the client and the client must be advised/reminded of his/her right to address the complaint to the Ombud within 6 months.

4. RULES ON PROCEEDINGS OF THE OFFICE OF THE OMBUD FOR FINANCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS, 2002 (“THE RULES”)

4.1 Timeframes for the Resolution of Complaints in terms of the Rules on Proceedings of the Office of the Ombud for Financial Services Providers, 2002

- 4.1.1 Whilst the Complaints Resolution Procedure, as outlined in this document, has provided the timeframes stated above for the escalation of complaints, in terms of the Rules of the Ombud’s Office, a complaint must be acknowledged together with contact details of the relevant person if the complaint cannot be addressed by the Group's Compliance Department within 3 weeks of its receipt.

- 4.1.2 In terms of the Rules, a further 3 weeks (a total of 6 weeks from receipt of the complaint) is available for resolution of the complaint. If the Group's Compliance Department is unable to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the complainant within 6 weeks of receipt of the complaint, the responsible person (depending on level of escalation reached) must advise the complainant of his/her right to refer the complaint to the office of the Ombud within 6 months of receipt of the final notification in respect of the complaint.

4.2 Requirements for submitting a complaint to the Office of the Ombud

- 4.2.1 The complaint must fall within the ambit of the FAIS Act and the Rules.
- 4.2.2 The Group's Compliance Department must have failed to address the complaint satisfactorily within 6 weeks of its receipt.
- 4.2.3 The act, or omission, complained of must have occurred at a time when the Rules were in force.
- 4.2.4 The complaint must not constitute a monetary claim in excess of R800 000 unless the Group and its Associates have agreed in writing to this limit being exceeded or the complainant has abandoned the amount in excess of R800 000.
- 4.2.5 The complaint must not relate to investment performance of a financial product which is the subject of the complaint, unless such performance was guaranteed expressly or implicitly or such performance appears to the Ombud to be deficient as to raise a prima facie presumption of misrepresentation, negligence or maladministration on the part of the person against whom the complaint is brought.
- 4.2.6 The complaint must endeavour to resolve the complaint with the Group and its Associates prior to submitting a complaint to the Office of the Ombud. The complainant must satisfy the Ombud of this and provide the final response (if any) from the Group's Compliance Department as well as the complainant's reasons for disagreeing with the response.
- 4.2.7 A complaint must be accompanied by available documentation in the complainant's possession.

4.3 Case fees, costs and interest

- 4.3.1 The Ombud may require the complainant to pay a case fee not exceeding R1 000.00 to the Office of the Ombud when accepting a complaint.
- 4.3.2 The case fee is not refundable irrespective of the outcome of the matter.
- 4.3.3 When making a final determination, the Ombud may grant costs against the Group, its Associates or the complainant, in either case in favour of the other party to the complaint or in favour of the Office of the Ombud.
- 4.3.4 Any award of interest and costs forms part of the relevant final determination of the Ombud.
